

Celebrate America 250 in Gettysburg!

Bring your group to the Heart of America's Story!

Celebrate America 250 in Gettysburg-where history, heritage, and unforgettable experience comes together. Step onto the legendary battlefields with a licensed guide, explore world-class museums, and stand where Lincoln delivered his immortal words. From inspiring stories of courage to charming shops and group-friendly dining, Gettysburg offers the perfect blend of education, exploration, and connection.

Start your journey in Gettysburg at the Gettysburg National Military Park Museum and Visitor Center with the 12 gallery museum, featuring artifacts, interactive displays, and special exhibits, the 15-minute film A New Birth of Freedom, and the breathtaking Cyclorama painting.

Next, climb aboard Gettysburg's iconic open-air Double Decker Bus for a one-of-a-kind view of the battlefield. From the top deck, enjoy sweeping panoramas as a licensed battlefield guide brings the history to life.

Take a break and savor a lunch at the Dobbin House, Gettysburg's oldest and most historic home built in 1776. Your group will enjoy a hearty buffet lunch served in a charming, period-decorated dining room.

After lunch head to the Adams County Historical Society Beyond the Battle Museum and learn about the history of Adams County and how this little town played a role throughout American History. Hands-on History programs available for groups of all ages and interest levels, including cannon firing demonstrations. Explore the museum and its immersive exhibits with 360-degree special effects technology.

Lastly, take a walk around the Soldier's National Cemetery, the final resting place for more than 3,500 Union Soldiers killed at Gettysburg and where President Lincoln delivered the Gettysburg Address at the cemetery's dedication on November 19th, 1863.
